MOROCCO

13 riding days

→ Full Description

Morocco is a very tourist-friendly country with dramatically changing scenery ranging from snow-peaked mountains (with snow skiing!), through rolling green hills, to the mysterious red sand dunes of the Sahara Desert. You'll visit medinas, Casbahs, and oasis and have opportunities to buy hand-made rugs and drink mint tea! Riding days will see you grinning your way through broad sweepers and snaking mountain passes. The roads are all paved and excellently maintained
